STAFF RECOMMENDATION

1. The Council having conducted a review of orders made under Section 90 of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act), the Council orders pursuant to Section 91(7) of the Act, that the document(s) (or part) listed in the 5th column of the table contained in Attachment 1 shall be kept confidential, being document(s) (or part) relating to matter(s) dealt with by the Council on a confidential basis under Sections 90(2) and 90(3) (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k) and (m) on the grounds that the document(s) (or part) is:
 - (a) information the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead); and
 - (b) i) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to confer a commercial advantage on a person with whom the council is conducting, or proposing to conduct, business, or to prejudice the commercial position of the council; and
ii) information the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (d) i) commercial information of a confidential nature (not being a trade secret) the

- disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied the information, or to confer a commercial advantage on a third party; and
- ii) commercial information of a confidential nature (not being a trade secret) the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
- (e) matters affecting the security of the council, members or employees of the council, or council property; or the safety of any person; and
- (f) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the maintenance of law, including by affecting (or potentially affecting) the prevention, detection or investigation of a criminal offence, or the right to a fair trial; and
- (g) matters that must be considered in confidence in order to ensure that the council does not breach any law, order or direction of a court or tribunal constituted by law, any duty of confidence, or other legal obligation or duty; and
- (h) legal advice; and
- (i) information relating to actual litigation, or litigation that the Council or Council committee believes on reasonable grounds will take place, involving the council or an employee of the Council; and
- (j) i) information the disclosure of which would divulge information provided on a confidential basis by or to a Minister of the Crown, or another public authority or official (not being an employee of the Council, or a person engaged by the Council); and
- ii) information the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
- (k) tenders for the supply of goods, the provision of services or the carrying out of works; and
- (m) information relating to a proposed amendment to a Development Plan under the Development Act 1993 before a Plan Amendment Report relating to the amendment is released for public consultation under that Act.

Specific details of which are set out in the last column of the table contained in Attachment 1.

These orders shall operate until further order of the Council and will be reviewed within 12 months.

2. The orders made by the Council pursuant to section 90(2) of the Local Government Act 1999 in relation to document(s) or part listed in the 5th column of the table contained in Attachment 2 are hereby revoked.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Section 91(9) of the Local Government Act 1999 requires confidential orders that operate for a period exceeding 12 months be reviewed at least once in every year. These orders are now being presented to Council in order to conduct this review.

General Managers have reviewed each item and provided their recommendations. Items in Attachments 1 are to be retained and items in Attachment 2 the items are to be released. Attachment 3 provides a schedule of documents that have been release through the course of the past 12 months.

1. BACKGROUND

Council utilises the confidential provisions within the Local Government Act 1999 when it believes the information being discussed is of a confidential nature and meets one of the provisions in Section 90(3) of the Act.

This review considers the nature of confidential orders and its compliance with the Act. Sections 90 and 91 of the Local Government Act 1999 outline the requirements for Council to consider items in confidence and under what conditions they may be retained in confidence.

Documents held in confidence are reviewed each year to determine whether an item is to remain in confidence or be released to the public.

The last review of the confidential items register was conducted on 17 April 2018.

2. RELEVANCE TO STRATEGIC PLAN

1: Smart Service Delivery Program

Outcome 1.2 Improved service delivery

Although this report links to Council's Smart Service Delivery Program, this specific decision will have no significant impact on its progress.

3. PUBLIC CONSULTATION

There is no requirement to consult the community on this matter.

4. DISCUSSION

- 4.1 The review of confidential items provides an opportunity to determine which items should maintain their confidential status and which items are able to be released. 85 matters are presented for review for a determination to be made by Council.
- 4.2 General Managers have reviewed each confidential item in the register and with input from relevant Senior Managers and report authors. Their recommendations for each are as outlined within attachments 1 and 2.
- 4.3 70 items have been recommended to be retained in confidence until the retention order lapses or will be reviewed and determined at the next annual review, whichever occurs first. These are listed within attachment 1.
- 4.4 In the case of an order of specified duration—
 - 4.4.1 The duration of the order cannot be extended after the order has ceased to apply (as a result of the expiry of the period for which the order was specified to apply); and
 - 4.4.2 An order extending the duration of such an order cannot be delegated by the relevant council or council committee.
- 4.5 15 items have been recommended for release. These are listed within attachment 2.
- 4.6 Since the previous review, 12 matters have had retention orders lapse and as such have been released from confidence. These items are listed within attachment 3.

- 4.7 Documents contained in the register can be viewed by Elected Members prior to the meeting by contacting the Governance team.

5. OPTIONS

Recommendation

1. The Council having conducted a review of orders made under Section 90 of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act), the Council orders pursuant to Section 91(7) of the Act, that the document(s) (or part) listed in the 5th column of the table contained in Attachment 1 shall be kept confidential, being document(s) (or part) relating to matter(s) dealt with by the Council on a confidential basis under Sections 90(2) and 90(3) (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k) and (m) on the grounds that the document(s) (or part) is:
 - (a) information the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead); and
 - (b)
 - i) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to confer a commercial advantage on a person with whom the council is conducting, or proposing to conduct, business, or to prejudice the commercial position of the council; and
 - ii) information the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (d)
 - i) commercial information of a confidential nature (not being a trade secret) the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the commercial position of the person who supplied the information, or to confer a commercial advantage on a third party; and
 - ii) commercial information of a confidential nature (not being a trade secret) the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (e) matters affecting the security of the council, members or employees of the council, or council property; or the safety of any person; and
 - (f) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the maintenance of law, including by affecting (or potentially affecting) the prevention, detection or investigation of a criminal offence, or the right to a fair trial; and
 - (g) matters that must be considered in confidence in order to ensure that the council does not breach any law, order or direction of a court or tribunal constituted by law, any duty of confidence, or other legal obligation or duty; and
 - (h) legal advice; and
 - (i) information relating to actual litigation, or litigation that the Council or Council committee believes on reasonable grounds will take place, involving the council or an employee of the Council; and
 - (j)
 - i) information the disclosure of which would divulge information provided on a confidential basis by or to a Minister of the Crown, or another public authority or official (not being an employee of the Council, or a person engaged by the Council); and
 - ii) information the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
 - (k) tenders for the supply of goods, the provision of services or the carrying out of works; and
 - (m) information relating to a proposed amendment to a Development Plan under the Development Act 1993 before a Plan Amendment Report relating to the amendment is released for public consultation under that Act.

Specific details of which are set out in the last column of the table contained in Attachment 1.

These orders shall operate until further order of the Council and will be reviewed within 12 months.

2. The orders made by the Council pursuant to section 90(2) of the Local Government Act 1999 in relation to document(s) or part listed in the 5th column of the table contained in Attachment 2 are hereby revoked.

Option 2

The Council having conducted a review of orders made under Section 90 of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act), the Council orders pursuant to Section 91(7) of the Act, that the document(s) (or part) listed in the 5th column of the table contained in Attachment 1 shall be kept confidential, except for the following items:

- _____
- _____
- _____

The orders made by the Council pursuant to section 90(2) of the Local Government Act 1999 in relation to document(s) or part listed in the 5th column of the table contained in Attachment 2 are hereby revoked, except for the following items:

- _____
- _____
