If legal proceedings are initiated or continued in breach of this provision, a party to the dispute is entitled to apply for and be granted an order of the court adjourning those proceedings pending completion of the procedure set out in this clause.

24.4 A party to the dispute must promptly notify each other party to the dispute:

- (i) of the nature of the dispute, giving reasonable details; and
- (ii) what action (if any) the party giving notice thinks will resolve the dispute; but a failure to give such notice does not entitle any other party to damages.

Step 2: Meeting of the parties:

24.5 A party to the dispute which complies with the previous step may at the same, or a later time, notify in writing each other party to the dispute that the first party requires a meeting within fourteen business days after the giving of such notice.

- 24.14 Unless otherwise agreed in writing:
- (i) everything that occurs before the mediator is confidential and will occur in closed session;
 - (ii) discussions (including admissions and concessions) are without prejudice and may not be called into evidence in any subsequent arbitration or litigation by a party; and
 - (iii) documents brought into existence specifically for the purpose of the mediation may not be admitted in evidence in any subsequent arbitration or legal proceedings by a party;
- 24.15 The parties in dispute must report back to the mediator within fourteen business days on actions taken, based on the outcome of the mediation.
- 24.16 A party in dispute need not spend more than one day in mediation for a matter under dispute.
- 24.17 A party in dispute must bear an equal share of the costs and expenses of the mediator and otherwise bears their own costs.

Step 4: Arbitration

- 24.18 Despite whether any previous step was taken, a dispute not resolved within 60 days must be referred to arbitration, as to which:

 - (iii) a party must co-operate in arranging and expediting arbitration;
 - (iv) a party must send out to the arbitration a senior manager with authority to resolve the dispute.

- 24.19 The costs and expenses of the Arbitrator and of each party will be borne as the Arbitrator decides.

Step 5: Expulsion

- 24.20 If the dispute is unable to be resolved through Arbitration within twelve (12) months of the dispute arising, then, by way of Majority decision, the Constituent Council's each individually and collectively agree that the other Constituent Councils may, by operation of this clause and on behalf of the other Constituent Council, make a request to the Minister, which will be deemed to be an application by that Constituent Council to the Minister to determine that it cease to be a Constituent Council of the Authority.
