

Public Notice as published in the South Australian Government Gazette

5 February 2025

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Section 219(1) of the Local Government Act 1999, that a portion of Andrews Road in Munno Para West— from Curtis Road to and including Lot 3 Andrews Road of Deposited Plan 19544—will be renamed to Oakford Road. This renaming is a result of the realignment of Andrews Road as it passes through the Tudor Vale development. The new road name, Oakford Road, will take effect on 28th February 2026.

Further Information

A section of Andrews Road will be renamed to Oakford Road from 28 February 2026.

What is changing?

As shown in the diagram below, a section of Andrews Road will be renamed Oakford Road. Andrews Road will now line up to connect with the existing section of Andrews Road, south of Curtis Road. Oakford Road will end when it reaches Andrews Road, creating a T-intersection.

New street signs will be installed at:

- The junction of Curtis Road, and Oakford Road
- the junction of Oakford Road and the existing Andrews Road.
- Intersection of Peerless Road and Oakford Road
- Intersection of Orange Parade and Oakford Road
- Intersection of Antonio Avenue and Oakford Road

Why Oakford Road?

The new name recognises Harriette Oakford, an early settler in the area and the wife of John Andrews (after whom Andrews Road is named). This maintains the historical connection and acknowledges both families' contributions to the area.

When will this happen?

The change will take effect on 28 February 2026.

Do I need to do anything?

Two household addresses have been affected by this change – Council has been in contact with them.

All other addresses will not be changed, nearby households and businesses do not need to take any action.

Council has notified key organisations of this change to minimise any disruption to services. This includes Emergency Services, Australia Post, Google Maps, SA Water, SA Power Networks, and Northern Adelaide Waste Management Authority (NAWMA).
